Spring comes limping slowly in, bringing weddings and rumors of weddings.

Our former Engineering Dean sponsors something new in illustrated wedding invitations. Nothing since the whirlwind romance of Paul Bowman and Mary Quick has occasioned more excitement in Faculty circles than the announcement of the approaching nuptials of Dean Hugh Miller and Mrs. Izetta Jewell Brown.

Here let it be said that the Razz Berry in an exclusive story predicted this event over a year ago. The editors of this scurrilous sheet are now loud in their "I told you so's."

Simultaneously, the feminine bloc of the English Composition class is discreetly turned back, was recognized at the stationery counter of a downtown store selecting wedding invitations. Well?

The Dramatic Festival and the course in Roman History seem to be closely correlated. Just at the time that the class in History 14 is proceeding to a consideration of the relations between Rome and Egypt, the Mimes come forward with a timely presentation of Shaw's "Caesar and Cleopatra." Professor Kayser strongly recommends that all his students attend the "Lenten Service" to be held in the Tin Tabernacle next Friday night at 8:30 o'clock.

The prospectus indicates that this performance will be thoroughly worth while from other than historical considerations.

In the announcement of the Mimes that they have a scheme for "making a real red-headed Cleopatra out of Ann Wrightson," the Red Headed Club sees prospects of numerous new recruits. If the scheme proves successful it doubtless will be adopted by co-eds with Titian proclivities.

Mr. John Millikan lays himself open to a libel suit through his assertion that he took us to the movies. As a matter of fact, Jack isn't even aware of our identity. And this ignorance adds danger to his temerity. How does he know we haven't a husky husband who will play Jim Smith to his Gay Lothario and force him to make a hasty exit from the District?

Anyway, we wouldn't consider attending any movie other than the Little Theater which opens this week with rosy promises of oodles of art. After that one, the only gallant thing for Jack to do is to come across with one of the much sought after invitations to the opening night. Address: Becky Sharp, c/o The University Hatchet, George Washington University.

Even though it soars above our head, we are duly appreciative of the long peroration on art addressed to us. Jack asks the questions, "What is an art form? What is art?" And proceeds at great length to answer neither of them. However, we are quite willing to have it demonstrated that the movies and art have some remote connection, and provided the necessary wherewithal is provided, intend to view this widely-heralded "Potemkin."

Pan-Hel Prom to Be Held at Willard May 2

Orchestra Not Yet Chosen by Committee; Successful Dance is Expected

Plans are going ahead rapidly for the Panhellenic Prom to be held on Monday, May 2, in the large ballroom of the Willard Hotel. The Prom will last from 10 to 2. Committees are at work arranging for music and programs.

The orchestra has not yet been decided upon, but it is known that a very popular Washington orchestra is being considered.

The Panhellenic Prom is always one of the outstanding events of the G. W. social season, and this one is expected to be equally successful.

GATE AND KEY BIDS 17

The Gate and Key, men's honorary interfraternity organization, will give a dance tonight at the Theta Delta Chi house. The Gate and Key has just bid seventeen new men, who will be present at the dance. The names of the new men, however, will not be given out until the next issue of the Hatchet.

COLONIAL SHOTS DOWN MARYLAND; ARE UNDEFEATED

Girl Riflers Turn In Record of No Defeats and No Ties

BREAK RIFLE RECORDS WITH PERFECT SCORES

Helen Taylor Named Next Year's Captain; Betty Clark to be Team's Manager

The Colonial co-ed rifle team finished the season with a clean slate when the strong University of Maryland team met defeat at its hands in a shoulder-to-shoulder match on Saturday, 600-496. The Buff and Blue riflers are the only aggregation which have this year defeated the Maryland co-eds.

The local girls turned in a perfect score, the first time they have accomplished this feat in a shoulder-to-shoulder match this season. Last year Maryland was defeated 498 to 496 on their own range, after winning the National Intercollegiate title. By defeating the College Park team the local co-eds retain their title unblemished.

Six "Possibles"

Six possibles were scored by G. W. the high five counting. Two of these were 10x hundreds, fired by Eugenia Cuvillier and Ermytrude Vaiden, which means that every shot was fired within the innermost circle of the bullseye.

The scores were as follows:

Maryland: Behring, 100; Hissup, 100; Orton, 99; Peters, 99; Beyerle, 98; Kreider, 98; Essex, 96.

Both teams and their coaches were entertained at dinner at the Kappa Delta house following the match here. Helen Taylor was elected captain for next year and Betty Clark recommended by the coach for manager.

Awards Recommended

The following recommendations for awards were made: Major letters for Katherine Shoemaker, Ermytrude Vaiden, Helen Taylor, Betty Clark, Marjorie Folsom, Helen Prentiss, Vera Parsons and Eugenia Cuvillier; Minor letters for: Mae Huntzberger, Grace McLean and Suzanne Jamison. Numerals will go to Esther Iglehart, Naomi Crumley, Estella Humphrey and Kathleen and Susan Aud. The number of awards was enlarged this year due to the fact that the record made by the team has been the most successful one on record in women's shooting.

LAWYERS TO HOLD DINNER ON FRIDAY

Election of Officers, Speeches and Entertainment to be Followed By Dancing; Many Expected

With between 300 and 400 persons expected at the annual combined dinner of the Law School and Columbian George Washington Law School Association at the City Club next Friday night, this affair promises to be one of the largest and most successful of the year.

Preceding the banquet at 7 o'clock a business meeting of the Columbian G. W. U. Law School Association will be held, at which time committee reports will be heard and election of officers for the ensuing term will take place. This will be followed by the dinner in the ballroom of the City Club at 7:45 p. m., which in turn will be succeeded by dancing at 10:30. The price of tickets is $2.50 per plate the same as last year.

Speakers are Named

Judge Edwin B. Parker, Chairman of the Law School Committee of the University Board of Trustees, and Umpire of the German-American Mixed Claims Commission, will be the principal speaker of the evening. Brief addresses by William J. Wilkins, Theodore Shields and Samuel Abis, the three class presidents, will also be given. A representative of the Alumni Association, as yet unascertained, will also speak. Dean Van Vleck is toastmaster of the evening.

The Law School, which is the second largest school in the University, together with the alumni, is expected to respond with celerity to the thousand invitations which have been issued for the banquet. Due to the success of the combined dinner of the Law School and Columbian G. W. U. Association last year it was thought best to continue holding them at the same time.

The faculty committee appointed by Dean Van Vleck to make plans for the banquet, consists of Prof. Alvin E. Evans, chairman, Prof. William T. Fryer, and Miss Helen Newman. Co-operating with the faculty committee are Mr. Edward Stafford, president of Columbian G. W. U. Law School Association, and Mr. Vernon Brewster, executive secretary of the Alumni Association.

PLAY LEADS IN "NOT YET FLEURETTE"

Left, Carr Ferguson, who has been chosen to play John Ruysdael; and right, Elizabeth Wright, who will play Fleurette in the Troubadours' Musical Comedy.

MUSICAL COMEDY PLANS PROGRESS

Troubadours Continue Rehearsals For Production of "Not Yet Fleurette"

TO RUN EARLY IN MAY

Director of Dancing For Next Year to Be Chosen From Members of Present Chorus

With Elizabeth Wright cast as Fleurette and Carl Ferguson as John Ruysdael, the hero and the permanent cast practically chosen, rehearsals for the Troubadours' musical comedy "Not Yet Fleurette" are progressing steadily.

Although the comedy will not be presented until the first week of May, the production has already been whipped into shape. Four song hits, with music by Elmer Brown and lyrics by Larry Parker, have been completed, and will be published and placed on sale immediately after the performance.

These songs, "Cottage of Dreams," "Golden Hours," "What If" and "Good-Bye," are hits of the first rank, and promise to be as popular on the campus as "Come a Little Closer" and "Just a Kiss" were last year.

Chorus Masters Steps

The chorus, which has been divided into three groups, has mastered the first steps which it will present in the performance, under the direction of Mary Virginia Leckie. Rehearsals for both cast and chorus have been held regularly for the past two weeks under the direction of Larry Parker, who wrote the book of "Not Yet Fleurette"; Elmer Brown, composer of the score and musical director of the Troubadours for the past two years; Katherine Brown, dramatic coach; and Miss Leckie, director of the chorus.

From the chorus in this year's production one girl will be selected to become dancing director next year, to replace Miss Leckie, who will leave Washington at the end of the present school year. The Troubadours are functioning as a producing company with the management of the organization in the hands of a staff of producing directors. This staff, in addition to Miss Leckie, Mr. Parker and Mr. Brown, includes Marion Campbell, property mistress; Marie Didden, costume director; George Spangler, advertising director; and Pern Henninger, stage director.

The staff, the cast and the chorus are all exerting every effort to repeat their winning of the Phi Delta Gamma cup, and attain the standard set by their 1926 production, "Just a Kiss."

Bartsch Organizing Labrador Expedition

Marine Exploration and Botanical Work to be Carried on by Party This Summer

Professor Bartsch is organizing a Smithsonian Expedition to the south coast of Labrador, made possible by the courtesy of Mr. Copley Amory, of Washington, who has generously offered the facilities presented by his summer home on Matamek River for this purpose to the Smithsonian Institution.

Dr. Bartsch has selected Mr. and Mrs. Paul W. Bowman to accompany him. Mrs. Bowman, his assistant in the Department of Zoology, will carry on the marine exploration work, while Mr. Bowman, of the Department of Botany, will devote his time to botanical pursuits. Dr. Bartsch himself will be with the expedition only long enough to see that Mrs. Bowman is thoroughly started in the work, and will then return to take charge of Zoology in the Summer School of George Washington University.

The expedition will begin at the close of the present semester, and is expected to continue to the end of September.

STUDENT PARLEY GROUP TO MEET

President's Student Committee Will Confer April 13 After Two Month Lapse

VALUABLE, SAYS LEWIS

President Voices Hope That Body Will Continue to Act; Plans Are Progressing

Members of the President's Student Committee will meet with President Lewis next Wednesday, April 13, at 7 p. m., in the president's office. The last meeting of the committee was held on February 1, and Wednesday's meeting will be the first in more than two months.

President Lewis has just issued a statement to the Hatchet, giving his views concerning the work of the committee. It is printed herewith.

"The conferences participated in by a group of representative students and the President of the University during the past two years have been helpful to the administration and also, I believe, to the student body."

Finds Attitude Constructive

"It seems obvious to me that it is highly desirable to have a clearing house where the student point of view may be presented to the administration and where University policies may be explained to the students."

"I have found the attitude of the Student Committee consistently constructive. A number of suggestions presented at the meetings have been productive of action of a highly beneficial nature."

"Cooperation, through understanding and mutual confidence, is an essential element in the conduct of an enterprise where various groups are involved. This has been promoted by the President's Student Committee."

"I trust that this body or a similar one may become a permanent element in the life of the University."

It is thought that the committee at its next meeting will proceed with its plans for a permanent point system for rating students for participation in activities. The ultimate end in view is the award of some suitable recognition to students who are active in student affairs.

Records of participation in student activities, under the proposed plan, will be kept in much the same manner as a permanent record of grades is now kept by the Registrar.

POPULAR ORCHESTRA WILL PLAY FOR PROM

Eleven-Piece Band Has Been Secured; Tickets To Go On Sale At An Early Date

Moe Baer's Virginia Beach Hotel Orchestra has been engaged to furnish music for the Junior Prom, which will be held on Friday, April 29. This is the same orchestra which has been playing at the Wardman Park Hotel, and which is so popular with George Washington students. The personnel of the orchestra will be increased, bringing the number of musicians up to eleven.

The scene of the Prom has been changed from the Willard, as announced in last week's Hatchet, to the Hall of Nations ballroom at the Hotel Washington. This is one of the most beautiful ballrooms in the city, and will undoubtedly aid materially in making this year's Junior Prom a decided success.

The price of the tickets has been tentatively set at $5.00 per couple, with chance for a possible reduction. Tickets will go on sale in the near future, and may be secured at the following places: Registrar's Office, Quigley's Pharmacy, Medical School, and Spalding's Sport Shop. Representatives of the various fraternities and sororities will also have tickets for sale.

DEBATE TEAM WILL BE HONORED BEFORE SAILING

The debating team which has been selected to represent G. W. U. against twelve English universities will be honored in chapel on Friday, April 29. President Lewis, Dr. George Farnham, coach of debating, and Mr. Gilbert L. Hall will speak at the meeting, which will be held in Corcoran Hall at 11:00 a. m. The team, composed of William McSwain, William F. Williamson and John T. Trimble, will leave on the following day for England.

FORMER DEAN TO WED MRS. BROWN

Marriage of Hugh Miller and Izetta Jewell Brown To Be Solemnized April 16

ENGAGEMENT A YEAR AGO

Dean Miller Now at Union College; Mrs. Brown Well-Known Actress and Politician

Hugh Miller, former Dean of Engineering at George Washington, and now professor of civil engineering at Union College, Schenectady, will be married to Mrs. Izetta Jewell Brown, one-time dramatic star, on Saturday, April 16, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Dodd, 3300 O Street N. W., as the culmination of a series of rumors that they were engaged.

Although a rumor of the engagement of the two had been current for over a year and had even found its way into the newspapers, formal announcement was not made until last Thursday, at a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. James Moreland at their home in Morgantown, W. Va. Last year's issue of the George Washington scandal sheet, the "Razz Berry," contained a two-column story telling of the romance, and promised that the story would be continued this year. Developments have proved that the "Razz Berry" story was not without fact.

Mrs. Brown Well Known

Mrs. Brown is well known to Washington theatergoers, having been leading lady in a stock company appearing at Poli's some years ago. Since her marriage to Representative William B. Brown, of West Virginia, she has had an important place in the councils of the Democratic Party, and has frequently taken the stump for the Democratic ticket. It was she who seconded the nomination of John W. Davis at the 1923 convention in New York.

Prof. Miller left George Washington at the beginning of school last fall, since which time he has been on the faculty of Union College. He is well known to most local students for his knowledge of engineering and scientific subjects. He has also gained some fame as a tennis player.

A great deal of interest has been caused by the novelty of the invitations which are being sent out for the wedding. These consist of cards engraved in type like old hand-lettering, and depart from the rules of strict conventionality by having both the name of the bride and the bridegroom on them.

SPEAKS ON SOCIAL SERVICE

"Training for the Social Service" was the subject of President Lewis' talk at the banquet of Associated Charities held at Rauscher's last Monday.

Three Hundred Dollars Spent On Threat Note Clues, Is Claim

Arthur Lester Post, G. W. U. Student Who Was Threatened By Note To Police, Says He Left Town Only For the Night

Three hundred dollars spent and not even one blood-thirsty murderer to show for his efforts, was the sad plea of George Washington University's famous murder threat receiver, Arthur Lester Post, when he burst into the University Hatchet office last Friday morning. "It's all a lot of hay wire" was Post's cryptic comment on the whole affair.

Police of the third precinct characterize the incident as "an April fool joke." The identity of the "Jim Smith" who addressed the letter to the chief of police advising him to warn Post, who is a medical student at the University, that "he must leave the District immediately or I'll kill him" has not yet been discovered.

Handwriting is Clue

The only clue to the identity of the would-be murderer is the handwriting of the threatening note. The writing is small and slants backwards, being obviously disguised.

Post did admit, however, that he left the District of Columbia the night he was informed about the note. He asserted that he was back in school the next day, and that he left the District in search of clues to the sender of the note. The three hundred dollars he claims to have

MIMES PRESENT SHAVIAN SATIRE ON FRIDAY NIGHT

"Caesar and Cleopatra," Three-Act Play by G. B. Shaw, Will Hold Spotlight

PLAY WILL MARK FIRST WASHINGTON SHOWING

Cast and Staff Members Are Named; Play Is Mimes' Offering to Dramatic Series

Upon completion of elaborate plans, the Mimes will offer their version of "Caesar and Cleopatra," on the evening of Friday, April 8, in the gymnasium theater.

The play, by George Bernard Shaw, falls into the category of satire at its best, and is credited as being one of the cleverest from the pen of this famous British playwright. It gives all promise of being the strongest competition which the Mimes have put forth since 1925, when they won the coveted Dramatic Cup with "Society Notes."

Such a presentation cannot fail to arouse public interest. First, since it marks the first showing in Washington, of the play in which Lionel Atwill scored, and Helen Hayes earned her title to stardom, based on her interpretation of the famous Egyptian queen.

"Caesar and Cleopatra" was produced last season by the New York City Theater Guild, noted for its presentation of the best in the drama.

Cleopatra Red-Headed

The production of a difficult play such as "Caesar and Cleopatra," presents numerous problems as to settings and proper lighting effects. The Sphinx setting in the desert and the Egyptian palace room, through the loggia of which the Mediterranean can be seen, will be highlights of the production.

Special makeup for the players has also been ordered from New York, and in the order is included a scheme for making a real red-headed Cleopatra out of Ann Wrightson.

It also marks the first attempt on the part of the Mimes at a production of three acts. In the past, their efforts have been directed almost exclusively to playlets of one act, some of which were written by members of the society.

The complete cast and staff are as follows: Ann Wrightson, Cleopatra; Wilford Edling, Caesar. The rest of the characters include Mary Griffith, Lonnelle Davison, William Parsons, Edward Moulton, Arthur Davis, Wilbur Bailey and Kenneth Years.

The stage settings were constructed at the Wardman Park Theater by William Parsons and Edward Moulton, the latter also acting in the capacity of director. Kenneth Years is in charge of publicity, and the costumes were designed by Anne Wrightson, Ruby Griffith and Lonnelle Davison. On Monday night a special dress rehearsal was held for invited guests, and photographers from local dailies made their appearance and took flash-light pictures of the Mimes in action.

The sale of seats, all of which are reserved, is progressing favorably at the Registrar's office, and tickets may also be purchased from any member of the Mimes.

THE STUDENT COMMITTEE

Elsewhere in this edition is a statement from President Lewis with regard to the work carried on by the President's Student Committee. This group of students, consisting of the President of the Senior Class of each college, the representative of the University Hatchet, and representatives of the Interfraternity Council and the Pan-Hellenic Association, has conferred with the President on subjects of student interest for the past two years.

In his statement to the Hatchet, Dr. Lewis tells what he thinks of the value of such a group in aiding to solve the many problems connected with the administration of the University. It seems superfluous to add anything to what the President has said.

It is to be hoped that this committee, or one of a similar character, will continue as an important factor in student affairs at George Washington. It is further hoped that the change of administration which will take place in the fall will not affect the status of this group.

A PERFECT TEAM

The announcement that the rifle girls have just completed a season with no defeats and no ties on their slate places a new landmark in George Washington's history. One of the local papers has noted in speaking of the conclusion of the Maryland match that "The affair closed the Colonial's season, which has been the most successful one on record in women's shooting." A record-breaking team, indeed!

As congratulations for the team shower in from faculty members, from students and from friends of the University, few people seem to take into consideration that the team's work, though the basic part of a winning squad, is moulded and finished by the hands of the coach. It is with real congratulations that we turn to Walter Stokes, who for several years has coached the team and whose ambition has been to see the girls come out on top. His patience and excellent work in bringing out the best qualities of every girl in a squad of raw shooters has been in itself the backbone of the winning team. As we congratulate the girls whose fine shooting has brought new laurels to George Washington, let us not forget the man behind the scenes. Hats off to Walter Stokes.

AN APPEAL TO FATHER TIME

All of us are late for class now and then, some much more frequently than others. In many cases it is largely our fault, but often the tardiness is caused by something over which we have no control. The most important of these things is, obviously, time.

For the past several weeks the clock that controls the bell systems at the University has been three minutes fast. This, of course, makes people who go by the correct time late for class. Many students live a long way from school and have barely enough time to get here by nine-five in the morning anyway, without finding that class has been under way three minutes already when they arrive.

The official clock of the University should, in our opinion, be kept about two minutes slow. This should be the case, we believe, because of the natural variance between even the best clocks. If the clock were kept about two minutes slow it would also afford an opportunity for those who are temporarily tied up by traffic to get to class on time.

The same condition exists with regard to the evening classes. Many of the students who attend the five o'clock classes have barely enough time to get here from their work as it is, and the five minutes difference between a clock three minutes fast and one two minutes slow would afford the little additional interval needed. We believe that fewer people would be late for class if our suggestion were followed out.

OH to be a goat again and join in the hot time which is promised all who attend the Interfraternity Goat Prom next Friday night. The affair is to take place at the S. A. E. house and it's to be a real prom with all the extras. The grand part of the whole thing is that for once in their life the goats will not be goated.

The engagement of Mrs. Izetta Jewell Brown to Hugh Miller was announced last Thursday night at a reception given by Mr. and Mrs. James Moreland at their home in Morgantown, W. Va. Mrs. Brown is the widow of the late William G. Brown, Congressman from West Virginia, and Professor Miller was formerly Dean of the George Washington Engineering School. He is a member of Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity and Pyramidal honor society. The wedding is to take place Saturday, April 16th.

Betty Kilbourne entertained members of Gamma Beta Pi at a luncheon-bridge-shower in honor of Marguerite Daly, Saturday afternoon.

Pep Club dances are still much in vogue, judging from the crowd which attended the affair last Saturday. Music was furnished by the Naomi Band and the dancers learned much to their dismay that if they expect to get in on a dime next Saturday they'll have to go to the Pep Club meeting.

The Sigma Chi's held a snappy dance at the chapter house last Friday night. April fool pranks evidenced themselves in all corners.

The pledges of Chi Omega sorority have the true goat spirit. They are giving the actives a dance at the Grace Dodge Tea Hut tonight.

Theta Upsilon Omega fraternity gave one of the best dances of the year at the chapter house last Saturday night.

Bob Sanders had a house warming party a week ago last Saturday at his new home on Tilden street. Bob Gray, Hermoine John, Bob Richie, "Reds" Johnson, Glenys Hamilton, Bill Stewart, Harold Jenkins, Clyde Reeves and Helen Staples were some of the G. W. people who attended. Several unique dances in which Bob Gray and Esther Jenkins won prizes and a hilarious inspection of the new home preceded the midnight supper.

Everyone is looking forward to the much talked of Junior Prom which is to take place April 29th at the Washington Hotel.

The S. P. E.'s Bartender's Ball was a storming success. Everybody was much in the spirit of the April Fool affair and even the ex-bartenders seemed to enjoy themselves.

Chi Omega fraternity gave their annual banquet at the Women's City Club Monday evening. Many alumnae and several guests were present.

Kappa Alpha fraternity announces the formal initiation of George Williams and Allen Moore a week ago Friday night.

Captain Smith, member of Kappa Alpha fraternity, gave a dinner at the George Washington Inn last Wednesday night in honor of William McSwain, who is to go abroad soon on the Debating tour. Twelve members of the local Kappa Alpha fraternity were present.

The members of the Phi Sigma Sigma sorority were entertained in the chapter rooms on Tuesday, March 29, by their pledges.

The pledges of the Phi Sigma Sigma sorority gave a luncheon for the members on Saturday, April 2, in the chapter rooms.

A delightful supper in the rooms and theater party at Keith's afterward, was given by Alpha Delta Theta for several guests on Tuesday evening, April 5th.

The pledges of Alpha Delta Theta were at home to the pledges of the other sororities, on Sunday afternoon, April 3rd.

Margaret Schneider left on Sunday, April 3rd, for a visit to Ohio. She is accompanied by her mother.

Elizabeth Hastings visited Ruth Gregory Wheeler in Baltimore last weekend.

Alpha Sigma Theta members entertained their patrons and friends at a tea on Sunday, March 27th.

Miss Emily Plummer, an alumna of Kappa Delta, and a delegate to the American Association of University Women Convention, was entertained at lunch at the Kappa Delta House last Thursday.

Sigma Chi gave a Bohemian dance last Friday at the house.

Members of Gamma Beta Pi entertained themselves with refreshments and songs in the sorority rooms last Monday night.

Frances Walker, Betty Joe Hopkins, Ruth Smith and Helen Kellogg are entertaining the pledges of Sigma Kappa at a party and dance at the home of Betty Joe Hopkins, 1362 Otis Place, tonight.

Alpha Delta Theta pledges entertained the pledges of the other sororities at tea last Sunday afternoon in their rooms.

The pledges of Alpha Sigma Theta entertained the pledges of other sororities at tea in their rooms last Sunday afternoon.

The Sigma Kappa pledges entertained the other pledges on the campus last Sunday with a tea, held in the rooms. Lu Verne Crabtree, Ruth Smith, Eva Lewis and Helen Kellogg presided over the tea table.

The Maryland rifle team girls were entertained by the Colonial team after the match last Saturday with dinner at the Kappa Delta House.

Phi Mu Sorority held their weekly luncheon in the rooms on Saturday, April 2.

Clara K. Roberts spent last week-end in New York City. While there she was entertained by the Gamma Beta Pi alumnae at the Russian Tea Shop.

A. A. U. W. Delegates Entertained at Tea

School Dignitaries Receive Members of American Association of University Women

Delegates from universities and colleges all over the United States were entertained at the tea given by George Washington University for the American Association of University Women in the Council Room of Corcoran Hall last Wednesday.

A distinguished receiving line made up of Mrs. William Mather Lewis, Mrs. Joshua Evans, Dean Anna L. Rose, Mrs. H. L. Hodgkins, Mrs. William A. Wilbur, Mrs. William C. Borden, Miss Alice Henning, Mrs. De Witt Croissant, Mrs. H. G. Doyle and Miss Evelyn Jones met the delegates.

Refreshments ranged from the old-fashioned dipped mint and rose leaves to cakes made by the girls of the Home Economics Department. The tea table and council room were decorated in green and gold. Miss Linda J. Kincannon, Registrar of the University, poured and Ermytrude Valdes, Lydagene Black, Dorothy Latimer, Winifred Beall, Myrtle Posey, Harriet Ross, Suzanne Jamison, Anne McCorkle, Helen Robb, Grace McLean, Elizabeth Wright and Margaret Loefler assisted in the serving.

LOSES YOUNG SON

James Henry Platt, Jr., two months old son of Prof. J. H. Platt, died suddenly on Friday, March 24, after an illness of five hours. The cause of the child's death is unknown. He was taken to Dayton, Ohio, the former home of Mrs. Platt, for burial.

The Motion Picture

By JOHN MILLIGAN

A WHILE ago I took my pal and critic, Becky Sharp, to the movies and dutched some cokes with her later, whereupon she intimated in her column last week that after viewing one of the latest screen atrocities "we are moved to remark that this new infancy of the movies is second childhood bordering on senile decay," and finished up the skirmish with a flank attack as follows: "Despite the statement of Max Reinhardt, G. W. students continue to demonstrate very ably the worth of the spoken drama."

Becky, dear, evidently my piece last week suggesting that the movies should not be judged by the outrageous output of the American producers escaped you. And as for the second allegation, I privilege myself a sly snicker as I conjecture the reaction of the Players, Dionysians, or Mimes if they were handed $10,000, a couple of cameras and some Kleig lights, and asked to produce a moving picture to be distributed by Famous Players-Lasky.

Well, well. All that has nothing to do with the revolt of an intelligent movie minority. Having thrown a slightly used bombshell into the works last week, it is up to me today to prove that the pictures are an art form.

What is an art form? What is art? I wish I knew. Perhaps, if length, breadth and depth are the three dimensions, then time is the fourth. And art is the fifth. For art is the expression of these dimensions, always just a little ahead of them, always waiting around the corner for mere life to catch up.

Realism, then, is not art, but the expression of realism is. Art is the expression of an intelligent man, and an intelligent man is usually somewhat in advance of his brothers. Art is not mere technical excellence; it is a dream, a wish, a fancy, a prophecy. And it is very, very snobbish.

Now then, can the camera be an instrument of art? Can it be imaginative, suggesting rather mirroring; can it catch the dreamful mood of man when he is wondering what is to come; can it describe? It can. (Forget about Rudolph Valentino for awhile.) The moving picture is at its greatest in fantasy, when the camera makes use of tricks to create an effect, to intimate a dream. Vide "The Last Laugh," the last part of "Variety," "One Glorious Day," "The Beggar on Horseback," "Captain Applejack," "The Treasure," etc. What is literature but the use of tricks to create an effect, to intimate?

If a book is great, why should not a well-done moving picture be great, too? What is lost in the transfer? Description? Aha, if a description is art, why shouldn't the real thing seen through the eyes of an artistic camera, be art too? Dialogue? Subtitles! (If you say that subtitles are distracting, why should they be more distracting than dialogue in a story?) The artist's touch, and style? What are they but mere tricks, words that soothe and dream. A beautiful camera shot is just as effective.

Perhaps I grow vulnerable, for Becky will have at me with Shakespeare and Dante. Well, Becky, Shakespeare is but humanity. Adapting him to the screen one would not lose art, but Shakespeare. But that doesn't mean that the movies can't be an art anymore than the fact you can't adapt him to sculpture means that chipping granite is not an art.

So, folks, forget most of the American movies, and watch the programs of the Motion Picture Guild in its new home, the Little Theater. I promise lots and lots of art, and things, besides many interesting novelties, and rare reels. Our first picture, "Potemkin," is an expression of realism. And, Becky, Max Reinhardt said, "After seeing 'Potemkin' I am willing that the movies will supersede the stage." —Q. B. D.

ELEPHANTS

The elephant is man's most intelligent helper. But—consider this interesting comparison:

An elephant is much larger than the electric motor of a "yarder" or logging machine. The "yarder" has the power of twenty elephants; it handles clusters of logs; it works dependably, twenty-four hours at a stretch, if necessary.

Twenty elephants would eat daily 10,000 pounds of green food, which a corps of attendants must gather. A motor "eats" nothing but electricity, supplied at the throw of a switch.

Power used in the modern industrial world is applied through electric motors—tireless "iron elephants" that are relegating antiquated machines to museums, along with such oldtime household articles as wash-tubs and ordinary irons—and stuffed elephants.

Two million elephants could not do the work now being done by General Electric motors. Whatever the work to be done, whether it needs the power of an elephant or the force of a man's arm, there is a General Electric motor that will do it faithfully for a lifetime at a cost of a few cents an hour.

GRIDMEN START FINAL WEEK OF SPRING TRAINING

Rigid Program Now Followed
By Squad of Thirty Aspirants For Eleven

SEVERAL NEWCOMERS SHOW MARKED ABILITY

New Series of Plays Worked Out by Coaches; Few Injuries on Squad

By KINGSLED PRENDER

Tomorrow afternoon the Colonial gridiron team aspirants will leave the famous "tin tabernacle" at G. W. destined for Tidal Basin Field where, under Coach H. Watson Crum, the fourth and perhaps, final week of spring football practice will be started.

The thirty ambitious candidates who have been reporting regularly have been showing so much promise that their mentor has actually smiled when he had thoughts of next season.

A fine spirit of cooperation and willingness prevails. The veterans are working earnestly to retain their positions but at the same time are giving advice to the newcomers concerning this play and that.

In fact, it seems obvious that no position is certain unless it be that of Capt. Dave Allhouse, who will probably start at his old post at right end.

For the first two weeks the practice was of a light order, Coach Crum having made it clear that he expected no avoidable injuries due to strained muscles and the like. Tuesday of last week, however, he let the boys open up and be as footballish as possible.

INTER-CLASS RUN PLANS ARE MADE BY LETTER CLUB

G. W. Club Selects Major Officials For Annual Event
On April 16

TO BE HELD IN CENTRAL HIGH SCHOOL STADIUM

Many Entrants Expected; Application Blanks May be Obtained at Gymnasium

Definite preparations are rapidly being made by the G. W. Club to assure the success of the Fourth Annual Inter-Class Track and Field Meet which is to be held in the Central High School Stadium from 1 to 5 p. m., Saturday, April 16.

Already the major officials for the meet have been selected. Professor Henry G. Doyle, Professor Harold G. Sutton and Mr. Gilbert L. Hall have been named as judges of the meet. Hilory A. Tolson, president of the G. W. Club for the past three years, will act as judge of the course, according to Harold Young, present head of the organization. Thomas F. Proby, track coach, is to be the official starter, while Miss Virginia Hopkins, director of women's athletics, will assist generally in the women's events. All members of the G. W. Club are to be present and serve as time-keepers and minor officials for individual events.

Every member of both the men's and women's track squads is expected to participate in the meet. The trackmen are practicing regularly in preparation for the Inter-Class tourney and coming encounters with other universities, by workouts on the Georgetown track, under the eye of Coach Proby. Jumping pits have been placed on the campus, and candidates for the women's track team receive daily practice, directed by Miss Hopkins.

New Material Expected

The G. W. Club is anxious, however, to have many of the underclass men and women enter the meet so that new material may be discovered, and more competition afforded for the trophies. Both Coach Proby and Miss Hopkins intend to watch the performance of all contestants closely in the hope of strengthening their squads for the coming season.

Application blanks on which the events and rules are listed, may be procured at the office of the Director (Continued on page 4)

G. W. GOLF TEAM BEATEN BY U. VA.

Lose to Cavaliers After Hard
Fight on Rain-Soaked
Course

TWO CAPTAINS PLAY EVEN

Team Meets Many Difficulties on Trip
By Motor; One Car Arrives at 3 A. M.

By TOM TENNISWOOD

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va., April 3. (Special to The Hatchet).—The fighting spirit of George Washington University again manifested itself today when the Varsity Golf team bowed to the crack aggregation of the University of Virginia in a match played here this morning. After fighting against almost insurmountable odds from the beginning of the trip by motor, which many times almost ended disastrously on the rain-soaked Virginia roads, the team finally reached their destination late Saturday evening, considerably worn out, but still retaining their eager desire to lick Virginia.

Playing on the rain-soaked Albemarle Golf Club course under winter rules, even in the rough, and using many temporary greens, the Colonials, headed by Captain Charles Cole, dropped all four matches to the Cavaliers by narrow margins. Charles Mackall, the Virginia captain and all-Southern football guard, and Capt. Cole of G. W. broke even in the scoring in their match.

Show up Well

Others who showed exceptional ability in the matches were James Hunter, Butler Grimes, Lewis Morrow, and Bob McClanahan for Virginia, and Bob Grove, Ralph Thrasher, Bob Morrow, Dick Schulze, Jack Atherton, and Albert Alexander for George Washington.

The scoring was as follows:
Chas. Mackall tied with Chas. Cole, Jas. Hunter won, 5 and 3, over Bob Grove.
Stanley Meade won, 7 and 6, over Joe Bloom, (mgr).
Louis Morrow won, 3 and 2, over Jack Atherton.
Chas. Surratt won, 3 and 1, over Ralph Thrasher.
Tom Todd won, 2 up, over Bob Morrow.

Butler Grimes won, 1 up, over Albert Alexander.
Bob McClanahan won, 1 up, over Dick Schulze.

The team left early Saturday morning, and the machine containing Capt. Cole, Thrasher, Bloom, and driven by Dick Schulze met with a serious accident to the motor just outside of Alexandria, and the men were not able to leave there until late that night, and arrived at Charlottesville about 3 o'clock Sunday morning. The first car with Bob Grove, Morrow, Alexander, Atherton, and Tenniswood arrived early Saturday and were given a welcome reception at the Sigma Nu fraternity house, where the visitors were housed and entertained during the short stay.

A return match will be played in Washington on a future date, and George Washington stands a splendid chance of retaliating with a victory from all indications, taking for granted the odds in favor of the team playing on its home course.

FRATERNITY MEN EAT FAST, CO-EDS LINGER

Men Take Only Eight Minutes, Girls
Twenty, Says Health Official at N. W.; Women Talk Clothes

EVANSTON.—Fraternity men eat too fast, is the opinion of the Evanston health commissioner. He watched thirty men at noontime bolt meat, potatoes, fruit, pudding, bread, butter, and coffee, and hurry off to their "one o'clocks."

They took just eight minutes and twenty-three seconds.

"Students going to school should take at least twenty minutes to eat," was the health commissioner's verdict. "They should converse more at the noon hour."

With respect to women students, the situation is different. One of the waiters at Willard Hall here says that although the men eat and do not talk, the girls talk and do not eat.

"The average time it takes them to eat is twenty minutes," he said.

"Before the Junior Prom and during the recent political scandal it took them thirty minutes. During the football season the time is about twenty-five minutes, but last week just before the Senior ball and the Delt prom it took the girls thirty-seven minutes."

When asked what the girls talked about, he said, "Oh, nothing much. Just men and clothes, and clothes and men."

EPISCOPAL CLUB TO MEET

The Episcopal Club will meet in Corcoran Hall 17 at 8 p. m. on Thursday, April 7. The speaker for the evening will be Padre Hugh L. Sawbridge, of the "Toc-H" unit at Leicester, England.

BASEBALL NOTICE

Regular practice for the baseball team will start tomorrow. All those interested in baseball report to Coach Crum in the gymnasium at 7:00 o'clock Thursday.

Cup Race Nears End; Vaiden Still Leading

Omwake Now Second With Only
Two-Point Lead Over Next
Contender

Ermyntude Vaiden is still leading as the end of the race for the women's activity cup draws near with a score of 174, exactly 60 points in advance of her nearest rival, Louise Omwake, who has totaled 114. Only two months remain, and according to the present outlook prospects are bright for Vaiden to capture the valued trophy, although Omwake may creep up on her and walk away with it.

The first ten girls rate as follows:

1. Ermyntude Vaiden	174
2. Louise Omwake	114
3. Betty Clark	112
4. Verna Parsons	104
5. Gene Cuvillier	103
6. Helen Prentiss	96
7. Julia Denning	93

FRATERNITY BALL SCHEDULE BEGINS

Sigma Phi Epsilon Downs Acacia
20-4 In Opening Tilt
of Series

HALTED BY DARKNESS

Muddy Diamond Slows up Game
Played at Rock Creek Park
Last Sunday

Sigma Phi Epsilon, of league 2, won the opening game of this season's interfraternity baseball schedule when they defeated Acacia Fraternity by the score of 20 to 4 on Rock Creek Park diamond Sunday afternoon in a game handicapped by mud and darkness.

Owing to the condition of the diamonds after Saturday's rains, the games scheduled for Phi Sigma Kappa vs. Sigma Chi and Sigma Nu vs. Kappa Sigma of League 1, and between Sigma Alpha Epsilon and Theta Upsilon Omega of league 2, were postponed. They will probably be played next Sunday, or on the Sunday following.

The S. P. E.-Acacia game was shortened to six innings because of darkness, and was characterized by loose playing on both sides, due partly to the unfavorable playing conditions. Smith started in the box for S. P. E., with Coleman relieving him in the third inning, while Healy pitched for Acacia, with Wingard catching.

Four Games Next Sunday

The schedule as arranged by the interfraternity Council calls for four games Sunday, April 10, which will probably be played on the government baseball lots. These games should prove to be among the best of the season, as good matches are seen in Sigma Chi vs. Sigma Nu; S. A. E. vs. S. P. E.; Kappa Sigma vs. Theta Delta Chi, and Acacia vs. K. A.

Much rivalry exists this year in the contest for the cup, and Phi Sigma Kappa, who won last year's championship, will be up against some fast hitting teams. Sigma Chi, their close rival of last year, is in the same league with them this year.

With the exception of Easter Sunday, games are scheduled for each Sunday in April, and on the 1st and 8th of May, after which the winner of league 1 will battle the high standing team of league 2 for the local interfraternity championship.

TRACK PRACTICE GETS UNDER WAY

Team Holds Workouts at Georgetown Track; Uses
Gym in Evenings

LARGE SQUAD TURNS OUT

William and Mary, Catholic U, Johns
Hopkins and Gallaudet Appear
On List

Practice began in earnest for the track team last week, with the Georgetown track being used for outdoor drill on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons. The evening workouts were held on Monday, Wednesday and Friday evenings in the gymnasium at 7 p. m. It is announced that within the next few days the Georgetown stadium will be available for the evening as well as the afternoon practices.

A large number of men have turned out so far, and they are rapidly rounding into shape under the coaching of Tom Proby. Several entries have been received for the Inter-Class Meet on April 16, but all students who intend entering this contest are asked to report for practice.

Meets Announced

No additions have been made to the schedule during the last week. Meets on the card at present include a dual meet with William and Mary at Williamsburg on April 23, a dual meet with Catholic University on May 7 in the G. U. stadium, another with the Gallaudet athletes on May 14, and a triangular meet with Johns Hopkins and Catholic University on May 21.

The afternoon practices are held at 4:45 p. m. on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons, and the 7 o'clock workouts will be staged on the other week days. In this way, men from all departments of the school will have an opportunity for competition.

RIFLEMEN DEFEAT D. C. NATIONAL GUARD TEAM

Stokemen Will Meet Strong Penn
State Aggregation in Shoulder-to-Shoulder Match

Pitted against a team which consisted largely of G. W. alumni the G. W. Rifle team defeated the D. C. National Guard in a shoulder-to-shoulder match held in the University range on April 2.

Next Saturday, April 9, the Colonials will meet Penn-State in another shoulder-to-shoulder competition and an interesting battle is expected between these two very strong and skillful aggregations.

The indoor intercollegiate match will take place in New York City on April 16 and the match with Penn State is in way of preparation for this important event.

Camp Simms is already being used by the G. W. team in practice for the outdoor intercollegiate and the match with Navy on April 30. The team uses the regular service rifle in this outdoor practice.

The following scores were counted on the G. W. team:

	Std.	Kn.	Pr.	Total
Leighey	95	98	99	292
Riley	95	96	99	290
Parsons	91	97	100	288
Campbell	91	94	100	285
Plugge	91	94	99	284

Others shooting with the Colonials were Prentiss, with a total of 281; Schriker with 278; Hadue with 276; Lane with 272, and Isham with 269. As usual the high five scores were totaled.

On the National Guard team the following scored among the first five:

	Std.	Kn.	Pr.	Total
Shields	96	95	100	291
*Stokes	93	98	100	291
B. Smith	88	98	97	283

Modern smoking pleasure that never fails

THE smokers of this age are the most independent ever known. Accepting no hearsay, they have smoked out the facts. They have learned that the choicest Turkish and Domestic tobaccos grown are rolled into Camels, that here is the incomparable blending for goodness, that Camels simply never tire the taste.

Camel is the cigarette that never fails to please the modern age. Regardless of how often you want the comfort of a smoke, or how steadily you light one after another, Camel will never fail you, never give you any but the finest thrill of smoking pleasure. This is why Camel's popularity, by far the largest in the modern world, keeps overwhelmingly in the lead. As modern taste becomes more insistent upon choice tobaccos, increasing millions discover Camel's incomparable mildness, smoothness and mellowness.

If you want the cigarette that's good to live with from morn to mid-night, the one that is the choice of the modern age, "Have a Camel!"

SUMMER SCHOOL SESSIONS IN LAW START JUNE 13

Two Courses Will Cover Period Of Six and One-Half Weeks Each

SIX CREDITS MAY BE EARNED EACH SESSION

Professors and Courses Announced; Dr. Charles S. Collier to Head Faculty

Two sessions of six and one-half weeks each will be held by the George Washington University Law School this summer, according to reports from Dean William Cabell Van Vleet. Classes in the first session will begin June 13th and end July 23rd. The second session will open July 28th and close September 7th.

Registration should be completed by the opening dates and no students will be permitted to register after the first week of the session. Either advanced students or those starting the study of law may register for the summer courses.

Dr. Chas. S. Collier, Professor of Law, will be in charge of the summer school sessions. Dean Van Vleet will be teaching Torts in the summer school at Stanford University.

Open to Men and Women

Both men and women will be admitted to the summer sessions. Employed students may obtain a maximum of four semester hours credit in each session, and others may gain six semester hours credit.

Leaflets explaining the courses have been published by the University and are distributed from the Law School office.

Professors for the summer sessions are as follows: Charles Sager Collier, A. B., LL. B., in charge of Summer School; Hector Galloway Spaulding, A. B., LL. B., S. J. D.; Alvin Elenzer Evans, Ph. D., J. D.; Earl Caspar Arnold, A. B., LL. B.; Walter Lewis Moll, A. B., LL. B., S. J. D.; Judson Adams Crane, A. B., LL. B., S. J. D.; and William Thomas Fryer, A. B., LL. B., J. D.

Dr. Crane, who will teach Legal Liability and Insurance, was a member of the George Washington Law School Faculty from 1915 to 1917. Since that time he has been connected with the University of Pittsburgh and is now Secretary of the Law School of that institution. Doctor Crane received his A. B. degree from Brown University, and LL. B. and S. J. D. from Harvard. He is co-editor with Professor Magruder of Harvard, of Crane and Magruder's "Cases on Partnership."

The following courses of instruction are offered: Agency, Common Law Actions, Principles of Legal Liability, Real Property II, Taxation II, Insurance, Domestic Relations, Personal Property, Suretyship, Labor Law, Mining Law and Quasi-Contracts.

The Medical School will not offer summer courses for 1927.

PAN-HEL BOWLING TO START NEXT TUESDAY

Winner of Cup to be Decided by Contests to be Held in Two Nights

Concentrated practice put forth by the sororities in the various bowling alleys of the city ends Tuesday, April 12, when the official Intersorority contests begin.

The system to be used this year is the same as that which was found so successful last season. From each sorority is picked a team of five girls, each of whom bowls three games. Thus each sorority will have a total of 15 scores, and the sorority with the highest aggregate score will be the winner. In this way individual rather than team competition is most important.

The contest will be run off in two nights, April 12 and April 14, and will take place in the King Pin Bowling Alleys.

Two sororities will bowl at the same time, and each selects a male student to act as referee for both sororities.

Six teams will try their luck on Tuesday, April 12. They are: Sigma Kappa, Chi Omega, Gamma Beta Pi, Delta Zeta, Zeta Tau Alpha and Alpha Delta Theta. Those to roll Thursday, April 14, are Pi Beta Phi, Kappa Delta, Alpha Delta Pi and Alpha Sigma Theta.

The loving cup to be awarded to the winner will be presented at the Pan-Hellenic Prom.

'DOMY' DOMIGAN SPENDS EVENING IN CALABOOSE

Horace "Domy" Domigan, captain of the 1926 cross country team, taxi-driver and student, spent Friday night in jail, being arrested for driving his back down Georgia Avenue at considerably more than the lawful rate of speed.

It was quite late, "Domy" didn't have any money for collateral, and rather than wake his fraternity brothers from sound sleep, spent the night in durance vile.

When he met the judge in the morning he was fined five dollars, but by a touching plea got off on personal bond.

He is showing his friends a memento of his latest experience, a little green check, saying: "The bearer is entitled to coffee and a roll."

"An automobile driver had his arm taken off the other night. He put it around Marie and she took it off."

LITERARY SUPPLEMENT

The Hatchet expects to print another Literary Supplement the latter part of this month. All copy for this edition must be in the hands of the editors by the beginning of the Easter holidays. Sketches, poems and other short literary works are desired. The results of this edition of the supplement will largely determine whether it is to be continued and students are especially urged to turn in work at once.

FRAT TENNIS TO BEGIN APRIL 25

Schedule For Interfraternity Court Contests Drawn Up By Council Sunday

RULES SAME AS LAST YEAR

Two Out of Three Sets and Three Out Of Five Matches Decide Winner

Interfraternity tennis will get under way the week beginning Monday, April 25, according to the schedule as drawn up at the meeting of the Interfraternity Council, held at the Kappa Sigma fraternity house last Sunday afternoon. A cup is awarded the winner each year by the Council. Teams were picked by lot and each received a number which was used in the arrangement of the opponents.

Regulations with regard to the tournament will be the same as were drawn up last year. Each series of matches will consist of three singles and two doubles matches, to be played as prescribed in the rules.

Teams of four or five men will be allowed, each fraternity. Four men would be the lowest limit possible without having one man play more than one singles match. If five men are used one entirely fresh doubles team can play the third match, while two of the singles players can pair for the other doubles match.

Three Matches Decide Winner

Two sets out of three will decide the matches, with the exception of the finals, where three sets out of five will be required. Three matches out of five will determine the winning fraternity in each case.

Play in each first bracket may take place any time during the week ending April 30. The second bracket must be finished by May 7, the third bracket by May 14, and the finals must have been played by May 21.

The resolution adopted by the Council last year and which will also govern the play this season, reads as follows: "Teams of four or five men shall represent each fraternity; the victor of each match shall be decided by winning two out of three sets, save that the finals matches shall be decided by winning three out of five sets."

"Of the first three matches played in each round, one must be a doubles match; the fourth must be a singles, and the fifth the second doubles match; the victorious fraternity in each round shall be decided by winning three out of five matches."

The lineup is as follows: 1. Sigma Nu; 2. Theta Upsilon Omega; 3. Alpha Delta; 4. Sigma Alpha Epsilon; 5. Phi Sigma Kappa; 6. Kappa Sigma; 7. Kappa Alpha; 8. Sigma Chi; 9. Sigma Phi Epsilon; 10. Theta Delta Chi.

Sigma Chi Winner Last Year

Teams one and two, three and four, five and six, seven and eight, and nine and ten will meet in the first brackets. The winner in one and two will play the winner of the three versus four match. The winner of the match between team five and team six will meet the winner of the match between seven and eight, while teams nine and ten will draw a bye in the second round.

The winner of the one, two, three, four match will draw a bye in the third round, while the winner of the five, six, seven, eight match will meet the winner of the nine and ten match. The tournament will be decided by the final match between the winner in the one, two, three, four group and the winner in the five, six, seven, eight, nine, ten group.

Last year Sigma Chi won the cup offered by the Council, defeating Phi Sigma Kappa 3 to 0 in the finals played at the Wardman Park courts. The playing courts in the matches this year will be decided on by the respective team managers by mutual agreement, and most of the matches will probably be played on the municipal courts.

GRIDMEN START FINAL WEEK OF TRAINING

proved 1927-28 style, forward passing is a Crum, and occasional punting.

The scrimmages have disclosed equal strength of the line and backfield. Last year the Buff and Blue could boast of one of the strongest primary defenses in the East.

The Colonial board of strategy has worked out a series of new plays since the close of last season. These are being drilled continuously into the players' heads so that when they take the field they will fall mechanically into the correct positions.

In looking over the new men one is impressed with the broken-field running of "Shorty" Saunders. This fellow is short and light, weighing only 130 pounds, but he makes the tacklers look like butterfly chasers as he speedily eludes them.

Other newcomers who seem to have the goods are "Wheel" Barrow, of the basketball squad, and "Speed" Morrow in the backfield. "Husk" Davis looks like a comer on the line. He was formerly on the Staunton Military Academy eleven.

Coach Crum has been rewarded for the precautions he adopted during the early part of the practice session, for the squad is without any major injuries.

STUDENT CARS FORBIDDEN

EVANSTON—The student council of Northwestern University will enforce rigidly the university ruling prohibiting motor cars on the campus during school hours, claiming that they lead to congestion and noise. If violations occur, fines will be assessed by the council.

International Relations Club Hears Former President of Yale in China

That "China is now on the verge of an era of hope" was the conclusion of the address given last Thursday by Dr. E. H. Hume, former president of the Chinese branch of Yale University, before the International Relations Club. His lecture was entitled, "Forward or Backward in China?" He pointed out that the path would be forward if the programs and methods of reconstruction are sound, but it would be backward if radical elements and subversive forces are uncontrolled.

He brought to light the fact that China's loyalty is to its family relations rather than to the nation. He spoke on the history of the country beginning with the time of the first Chinese student, who obtained a degree at an American University, later touching on the Boxer Rebellion, the Period of the Republic, the period of militarism, and China's hope for the future. He then spoke on the educational steps in the process of China's future.

Forum Held

After the meeting of the International Relations Club, Dr. Hume held a forum for all those who wanted to ask questions about China. At this forum many questions on the present strife in China were brought up. Dr. Hume told that the present conditions were the result of two armies struggling for supremacy. "All the outrages are not the expression of the feelings of the thinking people of China, but are caused by selfish troops who are not interested in the advancement of China," Dr. Hume stated. "The majority of the men in the armies and all of the thinking people of China recognize America as a friend," he asserted. Dr. Hume felt that if America would do more to befriend the Chinese and live up to the policies outlined by the American diplomats, it would be much better for American interests.

He told how the Russians have carried on a remarkable propaganda campaign, and made friendly moves which have convinced the Chinese of their friendship. They allow Russians to be tried in Chinese courts, instead of demanding a trial in a Russian court for major criminal offenses. They have carried on a propaganda campaign in which their agents travel around the country, showing posters of soldiers shooting defenseless Chinese.

Russian Influence

"However, in spite of the powerful influence the Moscow government has with the Chinese, there is very little danger of their adopting socialistic principles," according to Dr. Hume. There was an emperor in one of the dynasties thousands of years ago who tried communism on a large scale. It was a complete failure, and the Chinese reverted to the old principles. This proves that the Chinese are fundamentally conservative, and they are not likely to forget the failure of the communist system.

"The result of all the troubles in China now will eventually be a 'bigger and better China,' and America can do her part by maintaining her friendship and helping the Chinese people with education," concluded Dr. Hume.

INTER-CLASS RUN PLANS MADE BY LETTER CLUB

of Athletics in the Gymnasium. These should be filled out and returned to Harold Young, president of the G. W. Club, at the Phi Sigma Kappa house, 1322 Eye Street, N. W., by April 14. Entrance blanks will be accepted later, however, and the time limit will be announced on the bulletin boards.

All students in the University are eligible to participate in the events, with the exception of letter men, who can only take part in "open" events. Only two changes have been made in the events this year, the 600-yard run being made a "closed" instead of a "novice" event, and addition of a 220-yard hurdle race, constituting the differences.

Many Awards Are Offered

Numerous medals, cups and trophies are to be awarded to winners of the different events. In addition, the names of the high point man and the high point woman will be engraved on the two boards in the gymnasium, which are the presents of the G. W. Club.

The class winning the meet will receive the Louis A. Fischer trophy. This cup was won in 1924 and 1925 by the seniors, while the sophomores earned it last year.

All men in the University who have won their letters, regardless of whether they are members of the G. W. Club, are urged to attend the next meeting of the organization, which will be held in Room 21, Lister Hall, on the evening of Thursday, April 14, at 8 o'clock. At this meeting, final arrangements and announcements concerning the meet will be made, and selection of officials definitely settled.

Should any changes be necessary in the present arrangements for either the meet or the meeting of the club, notices will be posted in the gymnasium to that effect.

MONDAY CHAPEL

Monday chapel, presided over by Dean Wilbur, consisted of the singing of several hymns, and the responsive reading of the psalms. There was no speaker.

SORORITY BASKETERS TO START PLAY MAY 10

Schedule Lists Beginning Date As May 10; Only Two Letter Girls to Enter

Intersorority basketball will begin Tuesday, May 10, when Zeta Tau Alpha plays Alpha Delta Pi in the gym at 7:45 and immediately after, Sigma Kappa meets Alpha Sigma Theta in the first encounters of the fair Greeks this season.

Wednesday, May 11, at 7:45, Phi Mu and Alpha Delta Theta will swing into action, while at 8:45 Chi Omega and Kappa Delta will battle for the victory. The following night Gamma Beta Pi will play Delta Zeta at 7:45.

The winners of the Tuesday night games will play Friday night, followed by the victors of the Wednesday night battles.

Pi Beta Phi, which drew a bye in the first round, will meet the winner of the Delta Zeta-Gamma Beta Pi tilt on Saturday, and at 8:45 the winners of the night before will play for the position of runner-up in the series.

Monday, May 17, the final game will be played at 7:45 in the gym by the victorious teams of Saturday. This, the decisive game, will undoubtedly be the most exciting of the series as feeling is very strong among the sororities.

New Ruling

The new Pan-Hellenic ruling that only two varsity letter girls may play on a team has caused such upsets in the line-ups that the outcome is uncertain, and will probably hang in the balance until the final whistle.

Summary of the schedule:

Tuesday, May 10—

7:45—Zeta Tau Alpha vs. Alpha Delta Pi.

8:45—Alpha Sigma Theta vs. Sigma Kappa.

Wednesday, May 11—

7:45—Alpha Delta Theta vs. Phi Mu.

8:45—Kappa Delta vs. Chi Omega.

Thursday, May 12—

7:45—Delta Zeta vs. Gamma Beta Pi.

Friday, May 13—

7:45—Winners of Tuesday.

8:45—Winners of Wednesday.

Saturday, May 14—

7:45—Pi Beta Phi vs. winner of Delta Zeta-Gamma Beta Pi.

8:45—Winners of Friday.

Monday, May 16—

7:45—Winners of Saturday.

PI DELTS MEET TONIGHT

Installation of officers elected at the last meeting will be the principal business of the meeting of Pi Delta Epsilon tonight. Members of the honorary journalistic fraternity will meet for supper at the Ivy Vine restaurant at seven o'clock. The meeting will follow the supper. All members have been urged to attend.

LEWIS STRESSES PHYSICAL NEEDS OF COLLEGE MEN

Says That Intelligent Physical Education is Paramount Need of America

COLLEGE SHOULD TRAIN MASSES AND NOT A FEW

Cites Poor Condition of Drafted Men During World War As an Example

"Intelligent physical education is a paramount need in America today," began President Lewis in his speech at the banquet of the Physical Education Association held at the Washington Hotel last Thursday night. "The physical condition of the American youths who presented themselves at the draft during the World War did not reflect credit upon our system of physical education and yet they were the pick of our people."

"It is safe to say," he continued, "that poor results in business and industry are due more to poor physical condition than anything else. Ignorance as to food combinations and lack of intelligent exercise, and participation in outdoor games lowers the capacity for work. The man who boasts that he has not had a vacation for 10 years is really explaining why he has not been so successful as he should be."

Education vs. Training

"We have confused the terms physical education and physical training," said Dr. Lewis. "We should not pay so much attention to training the athlete, but should devote more time toward raising the general physical average of the nation. It should be the aim of those institutions of higher learning not to center all interest in football, basketball and other games requiring the participation of a small number of people, and which may not be used after the student has left college; rather, he should be taught swimming, tennis or golf, which he may carry on after he has graduated." "That institution," he concluded, "which stresses proper physical education and proper love of sport is adding, not injuring, progress in intellectual education. Greece reached her zenith in the arts at the time when she most considered physical perfection. It is therefore important for us to see that everyone is impressed with the necessity of giving sharp attention to that physical education which will enable everyone to live an abundant life."

ENGLISH WAR PADRE EXPLAINS 'TOC-H' AIM

G. W. Students Urged to Attend First Toc-H Service at National Cathedral

"Toc-H" was the subject of an address in chapel last Wednesday by the Reverend Hugh H. Sawbridge, World War chaplain from Leicester, England.

Talbot House in Potting, Flanders, a memorial to the son of the Bishop of Winchester, Gilbert Talbot, whose ambition was to be a "Christian Statesman," was, during the war, a recreation house for ten thousand soldiers. Later it was kept up as a social service house and a symbol for the Toc-H movement.

As for "Conquering H," or war, Reverend Sawbridge recommends fellowship and a directing of youthful restlessness into the field of social service. "Prejudice," he said, "is the root of all the evil in the world today."

Is Touring the World

The British padre is touring the world to deliver the message to the youth of all denominations, and to gather recruits into groups of 40 or 50. Already about three hundred chapters have been established; thirty in South Africa, twenty in America, ten in India, two in the United States, and beginnings in Chicago, New York, Philadelphia, Egypt and Palestine. The Washington chapter is to hold its initial service at the National Cathedral on the Wednesday after Easter. On every Wednesday night, the local chapter house, 219 C Street N. W., invites all young men of the University to "come and see just what we are trying to do."

Any men who are interested in a Toc-H tour through England and France during July and August are requested to drop a card to the Washington Chapter house at the above address.

JUNIOR PROM COMMITTEES!

Junior Prom committees will meet tonight in Corcoran Hall at 8.00 p. m. The room in which the meeting is to be held will be announced on the bulletin board in Corcoran Hall. All members of the various committees are asked to be present, as final plans are to be formulated at this time.

SEVERAL DANCES ARE PLANNED BY PEP CLUB

Songs From "Not Yet Fleurette" To Be Sung at Next Meeting

"On with the dance" seems to be the motto of the Pep Club, for it has arrived at the conclusion that syncope will open the heart of the most indifferent student. Thus, at their last meeting plans were formulated for a series of very interesting dances.

The first is a benefit baseball dance, to be given in the Gymnasium on April 9, the proceeds of which are to be expended in equipment for the baseball team. This is the first large project of this youngest of the University's many organizations.

Also, an entertaining Carnival Dance is scheduled to occur in May, but unlike the former dances of the club, will take place in the evening, and will assume the air of a miniature "Mardi Gras."

At the meeting April 7 Dean Rose will address the Pep Club, and Elmer Brown has offered to appear with a quartet from the Glee Club, in songs from the new Troubadour show.

The Pep Club is desirous of increasing its membership, and a motion was passed to the effect that anyone not present at the preceding meeting will have to pay twenty-five cents instead of ten cents admission to the weekly Saturday dances.

NINE NEOPHYTES ELECTED BY COIF

Newly Elected Members of Legal Order Are Prominent in Law School

SOCIETY FOUNDED IN 1902

Highest Ten Per Cent of Senior Class of Law School Eligible For Membership

At the first meeting of the Order of the Coif, since its installation here last November, nine new members were elected to membership. The meeting was held in Stockton Hall last Friday.

The order was originated in 1902, and is the oldest national honorary legal fraternity in this country. It derives its name from a small, close-fitting silk cap called a Coif, worn by sergeants-at-law, during the period of the Norman Conquest. The George Washington chapter of the fraternity had its origin in the Benchers, a local honorary legal society, formed in 1923. Last July it was officially elected to membership in the Coif.

Members of the Coif are selected from students of the Law School senior class who rank among the first ten per cent of the class in scholarship. Hence, since the senior class this year consists of 123 students, and nine members have been chosen, three more will be picked in June, in accordance with the by-laws of the fraternity.

Now Has 80 Members

Although all the members initiated into the Coif last November had maintained "A" averages in college and were graduated with distinction, it is not necessary at present to graduate with distinction to be eligible. The first group to enter the fraternity could not be chosen on the ten per cent basis due to the impracticability of ascertaining the relative standings of eligible students from the old records. At present, beside the nine newly elected members, the Order of the Coif, has thirty members, fifteen of whom are on the Law School Faculty and the remaining fifteen are alumni. The neophytes chosen last Friday are: Phoebe Morrison, Vivian Simpson, Louis Berkowitz, Orville Marchetti, Robert Tixton, Clifton Moore, Edwin Reynolds, John Birks and John Sbarbaro. All of these will graduate in June with the exception of Birks and Sbarbaro, who remain until February.

Co-Ed Debaters Name Ruth Kernan Manager

Discuss Plans for Banquet to be Held Soon; New Manager is Active

Ruth Kernan was named manager of the co-ed debating team for next year at the last meeting of the season. She has done excellent work on the team this year, taking part in every debate in which the girls' team participated.

Plans were also discussed for a banquet for the fair debaters, which will be held in the near future.

of the University of Kansas, who has just been appointed teaching fellow in history at George Washington University for 1927-28.

SUMMER SESSION TO COMMENCE JUNE 13

Several Special Courses to Be Given; Greater Enrollment Than Last Year is Expected

Registration for the Summer School session of the Arts and Sciences Department of George Washington University will begin June 9, the day after commencement. It is stated by Secretary Kayser, who will have charge of the Summer School courses.

The nine-week course will start June 13, and the six-week course July 5. Both courses end August 12.

Catalogs covering the courses in detail will be ready for distribution on April 7 and can be secured from the Registrar's Office.

During the six-week period a large number of special courses will be given in pedagogy by leading professors of the country. It is expected that these courses will prove popular with teachers in the District schools whose teaching session ends June 22.

Approximately 1,200 persons attended the summer session last year and a greater number is expected to enroll for the 1927 courses.

WOMEN'S LEAGUE IS PROPOSED IN CHAPEL

Student Government is Topic of Betty Wiltbank's Speech; Explains Point System

Betty Wiltbank proposed the formation of a Women's League and Student Council as necessary organizations for student government at George Washington in a speech at last Tuesday's assembly on the subject of "Student Government." Miss Wiltbank spoke about the convention at Ann Arbor, at which she was the George Washington delegate, and at which 197 delegates from various colleges expressed definite opinions as to what their colleges needed in the way of student government.

Her suggestion for George Washington is the formation of a Women's League, composed of all full-time women students, and of a Student Council, to which every activity would send a representative.

League's Work

The Women's League, according to Miss Wiltbank, would take up such matters as the eligibility of students to be elected to office by inquiring into each candidate's eligibility before election, the dates to be set for the functions of various activities to avoid any conflict, the housing of out-of-town girls and the extension of hospitality to them, and, finally, the honor system, a matter to be discussed together with the University men.

Miss Wiltbank explained the point system as practised at Michigan University in regard to school activities. Points are given for each extra-curricular activity; but the students are allowed to participate in a limited amount of activities on the campus, and superior students are permitted to take part in activities outside of school. In this way all students have an equal opportunity for participation in school affairs.

Glee Club Appears In City Club Concert

Sings G. W. Song at Brown University Club's Concert; To Sing at Raleigh

The Men's Glee Club gave a concert Friday, April 1 at the City Club before the Lafayette Masonic Lodge. Mrs. Robert Harmon enriched the program with a very clever recitation with piano accompaniment.

Other soloists were Juanita Froehlich, soprano; Robert Ferguson, tenor; James McLain, baritone, and Herman Welthe, violinist.

Saturday, April 2, the club attended the concert of the Associated Musical Clubs of Brown University, where they sang the favorite George Washington University song, "O'er the Swift Potomac's Waters."

Thursday, April 7, the Glee Club will sing at the Raleigh Hotel, Twelfth Street and Pennsylvania Avenue.

Colleen—"No, Arthur, you aren't my type."

FRAT GOAT PROM FRIDAY EVENING

Pledges of Various Fraternities To Hold Dance at S. A. E. House

NAOMI BAND WILL PLAY

Singing of Fraternity and "Goat" Songs to be One of Features of Evening

Pledges of the member fraternities of the Interfraternity Council will hold their first annual Interfraternity Goat Prom at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity house, 3320 Sixteenth Street, N. W., Friday evening beginning at 10 o'clock. The dance, which will be informal, promises to be one of the most outstanding social events of the year for the Freshmen.

Music will be furnished by the well-known Naomi Band of six pieces. This musical organization is composed chiefly of students of the University and has played for many dances here and at the University of Maryland.

Among the many features of the evening will be the playing of the fraternity songs by this orchestra and the singing of the various "goat" songs. It is rumored that certain of these songs are not for outside ears, and it is supposed that these will be hummed.

Favors a Secret

Banners of the fraternities will form part of the decoration scheme. Favors, the type of which are being kept secret by the committee in charge, will be given to the girls.

A dance was held by the pledges last year but this is the first time that they have attempted a real Prom.

Chaperons for the evening will be Prof. Elmer L. Kayser and Mrs. Kayser, Prof. Henry Gratton Doyle and Mrs. Doyle, and Mr. Courtland Baker.

Thomas C. Tennywood, Kappa Sigma pledge, is chairman of the committee in charge of the affair. He is assisted by a representative from the pledges of the other fraternities. These representatives are: Robert Copes, Kappa Alpha; Patrick Harrison, Sigma Phi Epsilon; James Syter, Theta Upsilon Omega; Francis Thompson, Theta Delta Chi; Charles Fleck, Acacia; Fitch, Sigma Nu; Edward Mollahan, Delta Tau Delta; Texter, Sigma Alpha Epsilon; Arbogast, Sigma Chi; and Bayard Keough, Phi Sigma Kappa.

DIONYSIANS TO OFFER 'BRITANNICUS' IN APRIL

Racine's Famous French Drama Translated by Students; To Be Given April 26

When the curtain rises on Tuesday, April 26, for "Britannicus," the Spring Play of the Dionysians, the audience will have the privilege of seeing what is probably the first English presentation of this classical French drama to be given in America.

"Britannicus" is a classical drama of the seventeenth century written by Racine, the famous French dramatist, and deals with that period of Roman History just following Nero's accession to the throne, and portrays the early career of that emperor's cruel reign and also presents a picture of the character of that famed ruler.

In the representation of historical events on the stage the student is given a rare opportunity to vividly picture characters, costumes, manners and customs of a given period in their true atmosphere. History thus becomes a living reality and not dry events in books and so should appeal especially to the student of history.

Translated by Dionysians

To the student of tragic drama of English literature this production offers the opportunity for comparison of the style, tone and character portrayal of the French school of drama with that of the English.

This masterpiece of French drama translated from the original by members of the Dionysians, who are advanced students of the French department, will be interesting to students of French, for the play was written by one of the great tragic dramatists of French literature and presents a good example of the style and tone of drama of the French school.

Costumes, scenery and manner of portrayal have been subjects of research under professional guidance for months. The Dionysians should be able to present this masterpiece due to a series of lectures by many members of the faculty at club meetings during the past year.

All G. W. Students interested are invited to participate. The club has always had a double for each role, which gives many the chance to take part even though they do not appear in the final production.

A New Convenience For University Students

THIS introduces to University students a new way of getting around that has met with instant favor because of its convenience and economy.

You can now rent a fine private automobile that you drive yourself—take where you like—in fact use exactly as you would a car of your own.

Whether you're going for a trip of a few miles, a week-end trip or need a car for the evening occasion—you'll find this service mighty convenient.

You come to our station—select the car you want—and you're on the way. It takes about two minutes. No red tape—no annoying questions.

The only requirement is that you be qualified and competent to drive a car. That is all.

The cost is much lower than you would expect. Next time you want to go somewhere—we invite you to go in one of our cars.

Ride in Groups and Split the Cost

It costs no more for five to ride in one of our cars. Plan a trip with three or four others—divide the bill—and the cost to each is so small you'll never miss it.

TO HOLD SERVICE FOR COL. HOPKINS

Sons of the Revolution Will Conduct Memorial For Late Member of Board of Trustees

WAS ACTIVE AT G. W. U.

Large Attendance Expected at Services; Will Be Held in Corcoran Hall

Memorial services for Col. Archibald Hopkins are to be held in Corcoran Hall Friday, April 8, at 8 o'clock by the District of Columbia chapter of the Society of the Sons of the Revolution. Rev. Raymond Wolven is to open the services with George Washington's prayer, and President Lewis will deliver a speech of welcome. Dr. Marcus Benjamin, the chairman of the evening, will give the sketch of Col. Hopkins' life, which he was asked to write at the time of the Colonel's death last year.

Was Prominent Washingtonian

Dr. Benjamin, who is editor at the United States National Museum, former vice president of the D. C. Society of the Sons of the Revolution, and active in military, scientific, and literary societies, will be remembered for his sketch of Admiral Stockton. He chose George Washington for the services because of Col. Hopkins' association with the University as vice president of the Board of Trustees. Col. Hopkins was prominent in Washington affairs, and was President of the District of Columbia Society of the Sons of the Revolution.

A large attendance is expected. The members and associates of the societies to which Col. Hopkins belonged, the members of the Sons of the Revolution, his personal friends and Mrs. Hopkins will be present. George Washington students are invited.

WOMEN EDUCATORS DINE AT MAYFLOWER

University Officials Also Participate in International Dinner Held April 1 at Mayflower

One thousand persons were present at the International Dinner of the American Association of University Women at the Mayflower Hotel, on Friday evening, April 1.

The guests of honor and speakers were: Dr. Ellen Fitz Pendleton, President of Wellesley College, who also presided; His Excellency the Right Honorable Sir Esme Howard, Ambassador from Great Britain; His Excellency, Nobile Giacomo de Martino, Ambassador of Italy; His Excellency, M. Paul Claudel, Ambassador of France; His Excellency, Honorable Zdenek Fierlinger, Minister of Czechoslovakia; Mr. Timothy A. Smiddy, Minister of the Irish Free State; Honorable Joseph C. Grew, undersecretary of state; Mrs. Anna Wicksell, of Sweden, and Dean Virginia Gildersleeve of Barnard College. Mrs. Joshua Evans, Jr., member of the Board of Trustees of George Washington University was chairman of the committee on arrangements.

One of the outstanding events of the evening was the colorful reception immediately preceding the banquet at which Professor Elmer Lewis Kayser made the presentations.

Officers of Association

The general officers of the American Association of University Women are: Aurelia H. Reinhardt, Ph. D., LL.D., president; Agnes E. Wells, Ph. D., first vice-president; Elizabeth B. Kirkbride, B. A., second vice-president; Vassie J. Hill, B. A., treasurer; Lois H. Meek, Ph. D., educational secretary; and Eleanor Boswell, M. A., executive secretary.

An idea of the extent of work carried on by the Association may be formed by a partial list of the discussion groups at the convention. Pre-school education, elementary education, adolescent education, international relations, current tendencies in the education are only a few of the problems brought before the convention.

George Washington University women acting as ushers for the afternoon and evening of April 2, were: Elizabeth Wiltbank, Alice Cooke, Margaret Maize, Judith Steele, Elizabeth Stickley, Edwina Berry, Mary Lewis Beard, Lily Alpert, Olive Massey, Marian George, Lillian Beech, Margaret Moreland, Margaret Loeffler, Margaret Hall, Ruth Apperson, Naomi Crumley, Margaret Schwartz, Marie Didden, Evelyn Dickerson, Eugenia Cuvillier, Louise DuBose, Alice Ranck, and Betty Clark.

French Women Topic Of Three Talk Series

Madame de Mare Stein Lectures Monday; To Speak Twice This Week

"French Women from Madame de Pompadour to Marie Antoinette" was the topic of a lecture given Monday, April 4, in Corcoran Hall 1 by Madame Marie de Mare Stein. This lecture was the first in a series of three entitled, "French Women of the Court and of Today." Madame de Mare Stein will present the remaining two lectures of the series, "From Empress Josephine to Empress Eugenie" and "Women of Modern France" on Wednesday, April 16, and Friday, April 18, respectively. Both will be given at 8 p. m.

These lectures are presented under the auspices of the University. Students may obtain tickets from Dean Rose at 50 cents for each lecture.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

All women in the University carrying nine semester hours are urged to attend the discussion of a women's self-governing league at a mass meeting in Corcoran Hall on April 11 at 8 o'clock.

PUBLIC CONFERENCE PLANS COMPLETED

Visiting Delegates to Be Guests of University on Sight-Seeing Tour of City

Plans for the entertainment of delegates to the Public Administration Conference here have recently been completed.

On the afternoon of April 19 the delegates will be the guests of the University on a sight-seeing tour which will include the chief points of interest in the Capital City.

In the evening the University Club of Washington will hold a reception for the delegates. Greeting the guests will be many members of the club who are graduates of those institutions from which the delegates come. A musical program will be given at this time by the George Washington University Glee Club.

The following afternoon the wives of the delegates will be entertained with a tea from 4 to 6 in the Women's Building. This will be the last social affair of the conference.

The conference is attracting considerable attention in educational as well as governmental circles. It is a new idea and the results of the meetings will doubtless have some bearing on the possibility of future conferences of a like nature.

PRELIMINARY ORATORY CONTEST HELD FRIDAY

Miss Kernan, James Kirkland, William R. Ogg, Morris Spitzer, Sol Spitzer Are Chosen

The preliminary contest of the oratorical division of the Public Speaking Contest was held last Friday evening, April 1, in Corcoran Hall. Dr. Warren R. West, Dr. Tillem and Prof. Earl C. Arnold of the Law School, acted as judges, selecting five people from the 18 contestants to compete in the final contest. The students who were chosen were: Miss Kernan, James Kirkland, William R. Ogg, Morris Spitzer, and Sol Spitzer.

The preliminary contest for extemporaneous speaking will be held on April 1, in Corcoran Hall. Registration is not necessary, all students enrolled in the Public Speaking classes or who are certified by the debate coach, Dr. Farnham, are eligible for entrance. The judges for this contest have not as yet been chosen.

The final contest will be held on April 29th and will include the five winners in each of the three divisions, that of dramatic interpretation, orations, and extemporaneous speaking. Three hundred dollars in prizes will be given by Robert L. McKeever. Nine awards will be offered, giving three in each of the three divisions, $50 first prize, $35 second prize and $15 third prize. The judges for the final elimination are yet to be announced.

"Why does Tennyson compare his life with a game of chess?"

"Probably spent most of it chasing the other fellow's Queen."

G. W. EPISCOPAL CLUB HOLDS CHAPEL SERVICES

The chapel service on Friday, April 1, was conducted by the Episcopal Club of the University. Roiston Lyon, president of the organization, spoke of its origin and aims. The Club was organized in 1924 as the result of a student inquiry into the church affiliations of a majority of the men and women students of the University.
